A Lost Kitten Finds Her Way Home

English Story:

The Little Kitten's Journey Home Once upon a time, there was a tiny orange kitten named Mimi. One sunny morning, Mimi wandered too far from her cozy home. She chased a butterfly into a big, unfamiliar garden. When Mimi looked around, she didn't recognize anything. The big trees, the tall fences—everything was strange. She felt scared and began to cry. "Where is my home?" she meowed softly. Just then, a kind old cat named Whiskers appeared. "Don't worry, little one," Whiskers said gently. "I'll help you find your way home." Whiskers guided Mimi past the big oak tree, across the little blue bridge, and down the path lined with pink flowers. Soon, Mimi saw her familiar house! Her mother was waiting at the door, purring with joy. Mimi cuddled close to her mother. "Thank you, Whiskers!" she said. From that day on, Mimi never wandered too far again.
